

THE INNER MYSTERIES OF AVALON:

✧ A new workshop with R. J. Stewart. ✧

In the late 1960's and early 1970's, before the current wave of interest in Avalon and Glastonbury, R.J. Stewart was initiated into the Inner Mysteries by two remarkable British adepts, W.G. Gray and A.R. Heaver. He also learned the inner or esoteric aspects of British/Celtic tradition from Roberta Gray, an astrologer, author, and expert on Celtic lore, inspiring a deep connection that has endured for 40 years.

R.J. has written a series of books on Arthurian tradition, the medieval Welsh Merlin tradition, and Celtic mythology, published by major publishers and translated worldwide. You can find his books at www.rjstewart.net .

Join us to explore the hidden, seldom revealed, Inner Mysteries of Avalon.

1: Experience the true nature of the oft maligned feminine figures in the literature of Avalonian Mysteries and Arthurian legend. Learn how and why they were maligned in medieval literature!

2: Discover what and where "Avalon" really is, and what it means for modern consciousness. Is there really a "Glastonbury Zodiac"? What stellar influences are meaningful for us today?

3: Explore the vibrant inner dimensions of Glastonbury and Avalon, not the ephemeral outer town of rock festivals and New Age stores, but the spiritual Glastonbury, a planetary power place, rooted in the earth and resonant in a timeless dimension, open to the spiritual seeker anywhere in the world, if he or she has the right keys.

4: Enter the Inner Temples associated with the Avalonian Mysteries: the sidereal temple of the primal ancestors, the druidic temple of the Red and White Dragons, the timeless temple of the Arimathean tradition that leads back to the Fire Temples of ancient Persia, and the hidden Faery and UnderWorld temple long associated with Glastonbury Tor and its sacred springs.

R J Stewart and his partner Anastacia Nutt are guardians of the Sanctuary of Avalon, a shrine of Silence at the foot of Glastonbury Tor, following the original impetus and inspiration of the late A.R. Heaver and Polly Wood and their Avalon Group founded in the 1950's. Join us for this remarkable new workshop !
