

THE TEMPLE OF THE NORTH

with R.J. STEWART

Understanding and Working with Spiritual Power of Destruction and Regeneration

North is the Direction of Opposites: the dwelling place for the powers that destroy and the powers that renew. As a place of Destruction, it harbors the mysteries of death, night and darkness. As a place of Regeneration, it hides the seeds of rebirth and creative renewal.

In today's world, "what has been" is breaking down and "what will be" has yet to take form. As human ambassadors to the spirit worlds, our task is to court the margin where the power of the opposites flow back and forth, where the voice of the dying and the whispers of renewal can be heard.

In this new weekend workshop we will explore and experience the Temple of the North, learning how to court the margin between Destruction and Regeneration through meditation, ceremony, and empowered inner vision.

This new program was created to honor and enable our task at this time, thus it contains new material not previously taught, including:

 The Stellar River of the North * The Sapphire Altar * The Dark Goddess
* Sisters at the Back of the North Wind * The Mirror of the Past and Future
* The Paths of Judgment and Justice **
